Firestone Phoenix

Firestone Phoenix is a brand new 44-unit affordable housing development offering nine studio, 20 onebedroom, and 15 two-bedroom apartments.

This 3-story modern design community consists of supportive housing apartments for persons with special needs, multi-bedroom units for formerly homeless households living with mental illness, and apartments for formerly homeless veterans. Seven apartments are designated for families below 50\% of the area median income.

Firestone Phoenix offers housing for low income families and individuals who have maximum annual household incomes not exceeding $50 \%$ of the area median income (AMI).
